Student's Health Information

CHBC main concern is for the health and safety of our students. It is vital that any physical, emotional or behavioral conditions (perceived or confirmed) be disclosed so that we can ensure we are able to offer an appropriate program.

Please note: Failure to disclose the following information or any other information that can affect programming may result in immediate expulsion from the Canadian Health and Business College.

Within the last 2 years, has this student experienced or diagnosed with any of the following:

- Physical Conditions such as: surgeries, deafness, sight impairment, asthma, diabetes, autism, anemia, mononucleosis, hepatitis, ADHD, mobility difficulties, epileptic seizures, etc.? Yes No
- Emotional conditions, such as: mood instability (depression, anger, mania), self-injury (suicide attempts, cutting, etc.), anxiety (test, separation, etc.), eating disorders (binge eating, restriction of food) Traumatic experience (divorce, accident, death), etc.? Yes No
- Behavioral Conditions, such as: suspension/expulsion from school, addictions (compute, drug, alcohol, gaming), etc.? Yes No
- Learning Conditions, such as: difficulties with math, writing, reading or memory, failure of classes, etc? Yes No

If the list above is not a complete list, is there any other conditions the College will know that are not listed?
Are there any conditions that could impact programming?
